President's Message

These first two months as your new president have been an exciting time for me. I have recently retired and have a reasonable amount of time to devote to the organization. Many things are in the planning stage now for the coming year. I am looking forward to meeting as many of you as possible by attending shows and some club meetings in the coming months.

Our show in Peoria was good in all respects this year except financially. For the coming year, we will be experiencing some changes necessary to be responsive to the changing times. Our 1993 show in Peoria will be one day shorter and also one week later due to the hotel availability. Shortening the show will allow us to offer bourse tables at a lower rate and also to reduce expenses accordingly. We will still offer everything we have in the past. It is interesting to note that 33 new members have joined us in the past three months. The numismatic interest is there for us to continue as a viable organization.

I encourage the clubs belonging to ILNA to submit to me their show dates and club profiles to be featured in coming issues of the digest.

We have an excellent board of directors who are capable of making the decisions necessary to further the goals of the organization. Their combined talents will make our coming shows even more interesting for you. Dennis Witter of Westlake Coins in Peoria and Glen DeValk of Watseka are our two newest board members. We currently have a full board with no openings anticipated for the coming year. We will continue to offer the directors profiles in coming issues as a means for you to get acquainted with our current board.

In closing, a membership application to ILNA is included in this issue, so if you have a friend interested in joining, please make it available to them. Any applications submitted now will include the dues for 1993 due in February.

Numismatically yours,

Kermit W. Wasmer
President, ILNA

ILNA Board Meeting Minutes September 13, 1992 Peoria, Illinois

The meeting of the ILNA board was called to order by the new president, Kermit Wasmer, at 12:10 p.m. The following members were present:

K. Wasmer
M. Wieclaw
J. Erlenborn

E. Rose
J. DeModica
G. DeValk

J. Irmen
L.J. Kaczor
D. Witter

The secretary's report was read. Motion to approve was made by J. Erlenborn, seconded by J. Kaczor. Motion carried.

The treasurer's report was distributed and read by M. Wieclaw. Motion to approve was made by J. Erlenborn, seconded by G. DeValk. Motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS

J. Weber's letter of resignation, due to his moving out of state, was read by J. Erlenborn. His resignation was regretfully accepted. We will miss his contribution to the association while he was on the board.

The bulk mail rate to reduce postage costs was discussed again. K. Wasmer is to contact P. McNabb and work out the details on our actual membership list to make sure we have enough members to qualify.

NEW BUSINESS

Glen DeValk was installed as our new board member to fill the vacated position of Jim Weber. Glen's wife's name is Ronda and they live in Watseka, Illinois.

The silver round winners from the new members were selected by lot. The winners were:

Douglas A. Nelson
Hal Clark
Stefan S. Sztapka

Dr. Timothy Graham
Kenneth D. Saville
Don Hartzler

Glen DeValk
Ward Witter
Norman Porter

The convention chairmen were asked to make comments of results of their areas of responsibility. Most results were positive, however, there was low participation in some areas, especially the seminars.

The present board will continue for the 92/93 year with the addition noted. Office changes: K. Wasmer, president, with J. Erlenborn moving to Chairman of the Board of Governors.

J. Kaczor discussed his writing a booklet on the Illinois Michigan Canal for possible distribution in that area. Details to be discussed at a later board meeting.

Additional subjects were discussed which could be added to the ILNA Digest. D. Witter had some articles to contribute. K. Wasmer will also do some work in this area with several other ideas.

The financial results for the convention were discussed by bourse chairman, J. Irmen. There was a considerable loss due in part to voucher carryover from our previous show and reduced table fees again this year.

It was moved by J. Kaczor, seconded by E. Rose to limit the association's loss to $4,000.00 to clear the books for future shows. Any loss above this amount to be absorbed by the bourse chairmen who have a profit sharing agreement with the association. Debt to be paid by cashing association CDs. Motion carried.

A few vouchers for the 1993 show will be given to the dealers eligible by contacting the bourse chairmen. Show location for 1993 not to be decided until the Urbana meeting on November 1. J. Irmen moved, E. Rose seconded. Motion carried.

Next meeting will be held November 1 at the Urbana Coin Show at 12:00 noon.

Meeting adjourned at 2:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

K. Wasmer

The meeting of the ILNA board was called to order at 12:40 p.m. by President K. Wasmer. The following members were present:

M. Wieclaw	J. DeModica	L.J. Kaczor
S. Henry	G. DeValk	D. Witter
E. Rose	J. Irmen	P. McNabb
J. Wagoner	K. Wasmer

The secretary's report was read by K. Wasmer. Motion to approve was made by M. Wieclaw, seconded by J. Irmen. Motion carried.

The treasurer's report was distributed and read by M. Wieclaw. Motion to approve was made by E. Rose, seconded by G. DeValk. Motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS

K. Wasmer gave a progress report on "not for profit" bulk rate mailing. The fees have been paid and application made, but this will take about a month to process. We will mail regular bulk rate until approved.

P. McNabb has supplied D. Geiger and K. Wasmer the updated printout of all past and present members. Included also is our present list. D. Geiger will cross reference our mailing list and membership list for accuracy. List will be helpful for future projects.

A letter welcoming our new ILNA members has been sent by the president. Winners of the silver rounds were also noted in the letters.

New membership cards for 1993 have been printed and are ready for upcoming dues notice.

Name plates for change in officers and new board members have been distributed.

J. DeModica presented a statement and graphs showing our show results for the past several years. The loss for the past couple shows will cause us to restructure our coming conventions to the changing times.

We will be hosting shorter and less expensive shows. On the plus side, we will be able to offer lower bourse fees. D. Witter moved, J. Wagoner seconded to accept the report as presented. Motion carried.

J. Kaczor gave a report on his desire to author a booklet on the Illinois Michigan Canal. Discussion on how to finance was held. Committee was appointed, composed of J. Kaczor, chairman, J. Erlenborn and M. Wieclaw to work on details. Report on progress will be presented at the February meeting.

Updated letterhead has been printed and was distributed to board members.

Contact J. DeModica for additional purchases of elongated coins from our 1992 convention.

NEW BUSINESS

Motion made by J. Irmen, seconded by D. Witter to eliminate the travel allowance for board members to meetings. Also salaries reduced to $150.00 per year for the secretary, treasurer, and editor. Other salaries to be eliminated. Motion carried.

Three board member profiles were printed last year. Three were turned in at the meeting for the current digest. The rest are due by our February meeting.

Motion made by M. Wieclaw, seconded by J. Irmen to increase membership dues to $7.00 per year starting in 1993. Printing and postage have increased significantly over the years and present membership fee barely covers expenses. New members can continue to sign up at the old rate until January 1, which will include 1993 dues. Motion carried.

CONVENTION

K. Wasmer presented a package worked out with the hotel and security which will reflect a significant savings over previous years. Proposal was made to hold the show at the renovated Holiday Inn City Centre (Continental Regency) on September 16, 17, and 18, 1993 in Peoria. J. Irmen moved, M. Wieclaw seconded to accept the proposal. Motion carried. Show committee for advertising was made, with K. Wasmer, chairman; D. Witter, Peoria area; J. Irmen, Chicago area; J. Kaczor and S. Henry to handle other media. S. Henry requested that his auction be held in the early evening on Saturday to improve attendance and to eliminate conflict with dealer bourse. Inspection at 3:30, "Young Auction" at 5:30, and "Main Auction" to begin at 6:30 p.m. G. DeValk moved, E. Rose seconded, motion carried.

J. Kaczor moved, J. Irmen seconded to eliminate the banquet for the board and guests this year. Presentation of awards will be scheduled at a later date. Motion carried.

J. DeModica moved, E. Rose seconded to charge $1.00 admission to the 1993 convention. Discussion followed. J. Kaczor moved to amend. J. Irmen seconded that those 16 and under be admitted free. Motion to amend carried. Main motion then also carried.

Several other items were discussed involving the hotel before the contract is signed. K. Wasmer to inquire. Other committees tentatively assigned now for the show will be finalized at the February meeting in Rantoul.

Motion to adjourn made by J. Irmen, seconded by E. Rose at 2:45 p.m. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

K. Wasmer

(D. Geiger, secretary, absent)

NOTE: Many thanks to Jimmy and Penny Kaczor for hosting the meeting and for wonderful refreshments served.

ILNA Convention Youth Auction

The first YN auction was a huge success. Approximately 15–20 children participated. Each one was given a card with a bid number on it and a $200 limit. They could spend this “money” any way they chose (all on one item, or divided among several items). They turned out to be very smart shoppers. One of the participants saved all of her money for one particular coin and then bid until she won. She owned a slabbed coin when it was all over. One particular set of Great Britain coins went for $175.00. Several proof sets brought between $70 and $80. Other items sold for $50 to $100. All of the items for this event were donated by various individuals. This was greatly appreciated. The children had a wonderful time.

ILNA Convention Highlights

Club Profiles

Corn Belt Coin Club - Bloomington, Illinois

The Corn Belt Coin Club meets on the first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 at Champion Federal's branch community room on College Avenue in Bloomington. There is always a business meeting and then we have an auction of usually up to about fifty lots. Occasionally we will have informational slides or a program presentation on a particular topic.

The Corn Belt Coin Club sponsors two shows, one in the spring and one in the fall. The fall show will be held on Saturday October 31 at the Bloomington Elks Club, which is located downtown at Madison and Washington streets.

We normally have about 50% coin dealers and 50% card dealers. However, at this show we are going to have more room and possibly will be able to expand on the number of coin dealers that will come to the show.

Lake County Coin Club - Waukegan, Illinois

Eight individuals with an interest in coins met in June 1954 to determine if there was sufficient demand to start a coin club in Lake County. The positive response resulted in the origin of the Lake County Coin Club. Our historical roots include the fact that LCCC was instrumental in enactment of the congressional legislation placing Dwight D. Eisenhower's effigy on the 1971 silver dollar. We were recognized for our efforts in the April 29, 1969 issue of "Numismatic News". We just celebrated our 38th year.

We have been a member of the American Numismatic Association (ANA) since October 1954, and the Illinois Numismatic Association (ILNA) since October 1959.

Our peak membership years were the early 1960's when membership reached 203. When several other clubs emerged in the area, our membership was cut in half. That figure has steadily declined to our present membership of about 45, of which 15 members attend regularly.

Our meetings are held at 8:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month in the conference room of the Sunset Bowl (bowling alley) in Waukegan, Illinois. A drawing is held at each meeting and a door prize is awarded to a member in attendance. The winner becomes our program chairman for the next meeting. Following the business portion of each meeting, the program chairman provides a presentation to the other members. His/her program may consist of displaying items from his/her own collection and giving a brief talk about them, or bringing in speakers. Some previous programs have included viewing ANA slides, holding auctions, and listening to talks by prominent members of numismatics (such as Dick Yeoman of Red Book fame).

Our club banquet is held in September, the last month of our club year, and is co-sponsored by the club. Members, their wives, and guests are welcome to enjoy friendship and "coin talk."

Our annual coin show, which is on the last Sunday in March, is our primary fundraising event. It is held at the Waukegan Moose Lodge on Washington Street. Twenty two tables are available for dealers to display and sell or trade their wares.

Some examples of our numismatic promotions are:

1. Wooden nickels commemorating the Waukegan Centennial in 1959.
2. On June 2, 1959, with no payment of dues, Jack Benny was made an Honorary Member of LCCC by presenting him with a decree, a 1959 Proof Set, and a 1920 cent to commemorate his birth year. Jack really appreciated the free recognition.
3. Working with patients at the Great Lakes Naval Hospital to get them started collecting coins.
4. Putting coin displays in merchants' windows, local banks, and at Fort Sheridan, Illinois.
5. Working with the Boy Scouts of America on various projects. We are presently working with them to encourage coin collecting and help them earn a merit badge.

All collectors are welcome to attend our meetings at the Lake County Coin Club. We encourage new membership and would be happy to meet you and exchange ideas and coins.

Feature Article

The Indian Cent (1859 – 1909) by J. Zillion Westlake Rare Coins

In late 1858, Mint Director James Snowden directed engraver James B. Longacre to prepare a new cent design to replace the Flying Eagle cent as of January 1, 1859. Although it had only been in use since 1857, the Flying Eagle was consistently ridden with striking problems, making a change necessary. The result was what we now know as the Indian Cent.

After making various sets of patterns, Longacre settled on a design depicting on its obverse a youthful Liberty facing left, wearing a feathered Indian-style headdress. The reverse of 1859 showed a plain laurel wreath surrounding the denomination "One Cent." Longacre thought that these designs, with their lower relief, would prove much easier to strike. Production began in 1859 as scheduled, but Mint Director Snowden later informed Longacre that a different reverse would be needed, starting with the 1860 issue. Longacre's redesigned reverse incorporated a larger wreath, this time made with oak leaves, with a small patriotic shield at the top.

After almost 4 years of damaged dies and inconsistent striking quality, it was decided that the Indian Cent's copper-nickel composition would have to be replaced with something more malleable. A bill was rushed through and passed in April of 1864 authorizing a new bronze composition (95% copper, 5% tin & zinc). Indians were produced in bronze almost immediately thereafter. Later that year, Longacre's initial "L" made its debut on the obverse headdress ribbon, where it remained until the series ended in 1909.

The Indian Cent series produced several scarce issues, among which are the 1864-L, 1866 through 1872, 1877, 1908-S, and 1909-S. The two S-mint issues have the distinction of being the first U.S. cents issued by a branch mint. The copper-nickel issues of 1859–1864, hoarded during the Civil War, are also low-mintage pieces and, therefore, desirable to collectors. Proof coins were made at the beginning of each year, all of which were coined at the Philadelphia Mint.

During its 50-year coinage run, the Indian Cent proved itself to be one of the sturdiest and most popular U.S. coin series. Numismatists of all ages collect them today, still enjoying the coins that James Longacre created more than 130 years ago.

This is the first of a regular series of articles on paper money and coins throughout the history of our country. We hope you will find it both interesting and informative. Our many thanks to Jack Zillion of Westlake Rare Coins of Peoria.

ILNA Board Member Profiles

"Jimmy" Kaczor

I was born in Thorp, Wisconsin 70 years ago and am now living in Champaign, Illinois. I have been married to my wife, Penny, for many, many years.

I first became interested in coins in 1944 and started pursuing the hobby in earnest in 1947. I joined ANA in 1948 and ANS in 1956. I hold Life Charter Member #1 in the Champaign-Urbana Coin Club and Life Member #7 in ILNA. I am also a member of eight other numismatic organizations, plus one that few people know of – the "Numismatic Bibliomania Society."

What do I collect? First and foremost numismatic literature and obsolete paper money. But my interests range far and wide. What don't I collect? U.S. coins.

I give numismatic presentations to coin clubs, historical societies, and fraternal groups. I am a district delegate of ANA and a certified exhibit judge. I have lectured twice at the ANA annual conventions. In 1989 I was elected numismatic ambassador, with Clifford Mishler making the presentation.

I am here to serve.

Erthel Rose

I suppose I would label myself a hybrid collector, one that collects a little of everything. My specialty, however, is dimes. I started collecting Barbers and Mercurys when I was in high school, and that goes back to the late forties.

My current position on the ILNA board is honorary member. A stroke sidelined me, and a gracious board gave me an honorary spot. Later, I may run for an official seat on the board if my health warrants it.

My membership in ILNA goes back to over twenty five years. Jack Huggins sponsored my membership. When I was mayor of Arrowsmith, he audited our books each year. He discovered my interest in collecting, and I have been an ILNA member since then.

I have served as Vice President, Secretary, and was President during 1985–87. I also filled out part of Sam Johnson's term of 1984–85.

My years on the board and with ILNA have left me with many pleasant memories and friends.

Mark Wieclaw

Mark is 40 years old, married, and has two children. He has been collecting since 1976 and is primarily interested in ancient coins and German porcelain.

Mark joined the ANA in 1981 and has served in numerous capacities, including: district delegate (since 1991), exhibit judge (1990 and 1991), and the hospitality chairman for the 100th anniversary convention in 1991. He has also been a certified exhibit judge since 1986.

As a member of ILNA since 1982, Mark has served as president (1987–90), vice president (1985–87), treasurer (since 1984), board chairperson (1990–92), Digest editor (1982–90), and exhibit chairperson (1987–90).

Mark has also been a member of the Will County Coin Club since 1980. He has served as the president of the WCCC for 8 years, as well as vice president, treasurer, and exhibit chairperson. Mark has been honored as the WCCC "Member of the Year" 4 times.

Mark has placed educational exhibits at all levels, receiving 1st place and "Best of Show" many times. Mark has published research articles which have appeared in the ILNA Digest, CSNS Centinel, and TEC News, and he received the ILNA Digest literary award in 1985. Mark has presented numismatic talks at ILNA conventions, WCCC meetings, Chicago Coin Club meetings, and at other organizations.

Mark holds membership in the Central States Numismatic Society, Chicago Coin Club, Michigan State Numismatic Society, TEC, IBNS, SAN, and TAMS.

Dennis Witter

ILNA's newest board member is Dennis Witter, owner of Westlake Rare Coins, located in the Westlake Shopping Center in Peoria, Illinois. In addition to being an ILNA officer and member, Dennis holds life memberships in both the ANA and the Central States Numismatic Society, as well as memberships in Florida United Numismatists, the Missouri Numismatic Society, the Civil War Token Society, and Early American Coppers.

Dennis's interest in numismatics began as a youngster in 1958 and has never ceased. He learned a great appreciation for worldwide as well as U.S. coinage through his 20 years' experience building grain handling and storage systems all over the world, including such places as Venezuela, Nigeria, and Saudi Arabia.

In his 5 years as a professional coin dealer, Dennis has seen many changes in the hobby. As an ILNA board member, he hopes to make a positive contribution that will help promote the growth of not only ILNA, but numismatics in general. Any questions, comments, or suggestions may be directed to Dennis at Westlake Rare Coins, 2601 W. Lake Ave., Peoria, IL 61614.

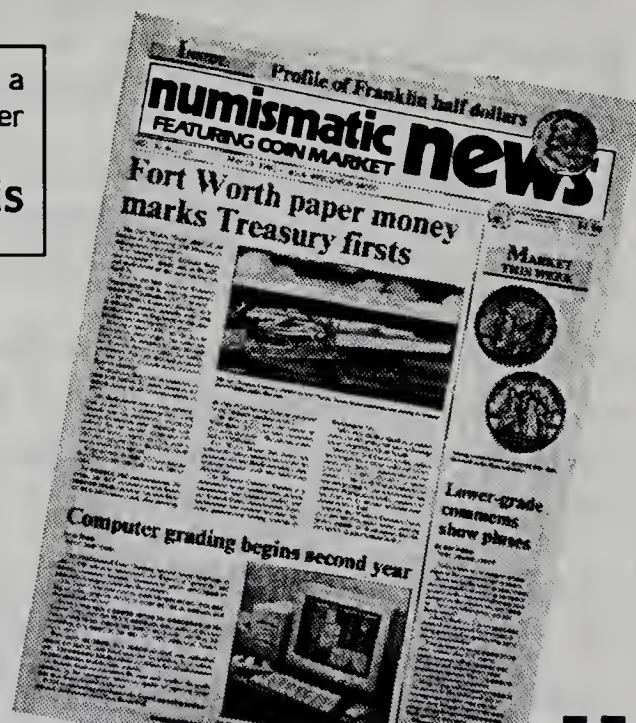

Numismatic News is quality from cover to cover

"NUMISMATIC NEWS tells me all that I need to know about the hobby on a timely basis. I'll look forward to reading NUMISMATIC NEWS and its sister publications from cover to cover over the coming years."

Glen Johnson, Illinois

Coinology

by Jimmy Kaczor

Editor's note: This is the first article of a new feature written by L. Jimmy Kaczor. Jimmy is our representative to A.N.A.

I have two main interests in my numismatic collecting. The first is obsolete United States Paper Money. The second is numismatic literature. Or is it the other way around? Maybe the books come first.

To me, for a person to say "I am a coin collector" conjures uncertain pictures. The first, I suppose, is a person interested in history, with a degree of adventure in his or her life. The second would be a desire to learn, a sense of order and a want to help others. This is what I propose in this column. To help you, and in helping you to help myself. Any of you who have given a "coin talk" to your local club knows that you learn a lot more than the people who hear the talk.

In coin collecting, knowledge carries with it a certain power. Not the power of politics or physical strength, but the power of who you are and what you know. Not the power of put down but the ability to lift up. Don't be a snob with your knowledge, spread it around. You won't lose a thing and others will gain.

Finally, to all I would suggest a part of your numismatic funds be spent on books. If you are truly a collector, how can you not learn about your hobby?

Jimmy is available to give club presentations on many interesting topics. Please contact him by writing to Jimmy Kaczor, 1306 Hollycrest Dr., Champaign, IL 61821 for further information.
